

Holly BorgmannVice President, Government Affairs, ADT

Holly Borgmann currently serves as the Vice President of Government Affairs for ADT Security Services, the leading provider of home and small business electronic security, home automation and alarm monitoring services in North America. Holly has advocated for, and successfully enacted meaningful legislative and regulatory changes at the state and federal levels to help clear the way for increased adoption of new technology in homes and businesses. Holly spends much of her time focused on public safety policy, data privacy, data security, and other tech issues.

A leader in the security industry, Holly serves on a number of boards dedicated to advancing public safety initiatives and other industry priorities. Holly has been recognized for her contributions to the industry, winning both the Security Systems News' 20 Under 40 award in 2015, and the Security Industry Association's Statesman Award in 2017, and was named one of the 50 Most Powerful Women in Tech in 2019.

Prior to joining ADT, Holly served in various capacities within the Altria / Philip Morris family of companies, and for Kraft Foods following their spin-off from The Altria Group.

Holly began her career as an aide in the Ohio House of Representatives to Rep. Nancy Hollister, the first woman to serve as Lt. Governor and Governor of the State of Ohio, and as the Secretary of the House Commerce and Labor Committee.

Holly holds a B.A. from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio in Journalism and Political Science. She currently resides in Boca Raton, Florida.
