

MEDIA CONTACT:

Leigh A. McGuire
Dir., Marketing and Communications
TMA
Email: lmcguire@tma.us
Direct: (703) 622-9516

Alan Gillmore, IV Assumes Presidency of The Monitoring Association

October 21, 2025, McLean, VA – The Monitoring Association (TMA) is proud to announce that Alan Gillmore, IV, President of Gillmore Security Systems, Inc. has been appointed as TMA's 38th President. Gillmore assumed the role at the conclusion of TMA's 75th Anniversary Annual Meeting, held on Wednesday, October 8th, 2025, in Palm Springs, California.

A long-time volunteer and dedicated leader within TMA, Gillmore has served in numerous leadership capacities over the years, including Vice President (2021-2024) and Treasurer (2018-2021), Board of Directors, and Co-Chair of the Membership Committee. His commitment to member engagement, innovation, and industry advancement has made a lasting impact on the association and its initiatives.

"I am incredibly honored and excited to be chosen to lead TMA's growth, innovation, and collaboration efforts over the next two years," said Gillmore. "TMA is the industry leader in education, standards development, and thought leadership. I am eager to advance these areas while finding new avenues for growth and modernization. I look forward to working with the TMA Board and staff to continue our legacy of excellence and support our great industry, which has given us all so much."

Outgoing TMA President Steve Butkovich praised Gillmore's leadership and vision, noting his long-standing dedication to the association and the industry at large.

"Alan's deep understanding of our industry and his proven leadership within TMA make him the ideal person to guide our association into the future," said Butkovich. "His strategic mindset and collaborative spirit will undoubtedly take TMA to new heights as we continue to evolve and serve our members in an ever-changing environment."

As President, Gillmore will focus on advancing TMA's mission and strengthening its role as a thought leader in the monitoring and security industry. His priorities for the coming term include:

- Membership growth and expansion, including outreach into new vertical markets
- Supporting and expanding the ASAP Service initiative
- Enhancing collaboration and alignment with other industry associations
- Driving standards development and promoting adoption of existing standards such as AVS-01
- Fostering thought leadership and education to help the industry navigate a rapidly changing landscape

-more-

Learn more about President Gillmore and his vision for TMA in the next issue of TMA Dispatch.

#

About The Monitoring Association

The Monitoring Association (TMA), formerly the Central Station Alarm Association (CSAA), is an international non-profit trade association representing professional monitoring companies, security systems integrators, and providers of products and services to the industry. Incorporated in 1950, TMA represents its members before Congress and regulatory agencies on the local, state, and federal levels, and other authorities having jurisdiction (AHJs) over the industry. Learn more online at <https://tma.us/about-tma/>.